Every Christian should read this book to reawaken their understanding of Satan and how he works.

He is as alive today as he was in the garden of Eden. The problem is that he has lulled the Church into a stupor which has allowed him to wreak havoc on the planet. It is past time that the Church awakens and prepares it's member to do battle and overcome the evil one.

I am just discovering E M Bounds and while some of the words and phrases he uses are a bit dated his message is firm and clear. Reading SATAN I was struck on easily evil works through this world. This is a good book for those who are on the fence spiritually and turned off by the mega churches and spiritual salesmen.

I will finish reading it, but it seems to give satan too much glory at the beginning. Waits too long (& I'm still waiting) to see where the author gives God the glory for overcoming satan through Jesus Christ by Jesus' life, death, burial, resurrection and the power of Jesus' blood; and that God always causes us to triumph (2 Cor 2:14), even when satan tries to hinder us from getting to where God desires for us to be, doing what God would have us to do, having what God would have us to have so that we believers can be a blessing in & to this world. satan is a nuisance, & an enemy, but God has our (believers') backs. I'm reading on to see if the author ever gets to those scriptures. So far it hasn't mentioned how Jesus stripped satan of his power & that the only power satan has is through deceiving us into believing that his way (rebellion, etc) is the way to go. It reminds me of something I read about "How can you tell if a dollar bill is a counterfeit. By studying the authentic." We learn from the Word of God (the Holy Bible) that the true God reveals Himself in His Word. I don't think it would be a good read for new believers, unless they know that "For God has not given us the spirit of fear, but of power, love & a sound mind (2 Timothy 1:7).

The world around us, (seen and unseen) ,is seething with good and bad that most mortals will never know.Satan is a relentless enemy.

This is a very well written book to use as a teaching aid for getting rid of that turkified devil.

Powerful truth we need today. Bounds was in touch with the important things of God. He wrote with clarity and insight.

Great reading. Seems like he just recently wrote this. It is so timeless. Good information great reference book.
